Hello Todd,

From the previous conf. calls and emails, our dev team was very impressed by the performance and the speed of Kannuu's auto-complete and instant search solutions .

However, I have an unfortunate news to deliver to you. The client and server dev team concluded that, even though the performance is excellent, Kannuu's solution will be hard to integrate to our next year's service and features, and they have communicated to me that they are going to stop reviewing the integration opportunities.

Thank you for all the support you gave us, and we will reach back if there's any projects that might require your solutions.

Best regards,

Chan
