Best Answer

Welcome to Zappos Ask. The UGG Classic Mini II will stretch over time due to wear and environmental conditions. Thanks for reaching out, Cheers.

These little boots are just delicious. My only complaint...all my other uggs are made in australia, these are made in china so I wonder how they will hold up to my others which are very old but in great shape.

I live the look and color of these boots, but they are impossible to get on because they are tight at the top. Unfortunately, I have to return them.

Beautiful color. I love that they now come pre-treated for stain and water resistance. Sadly, I have to return them. If you have wide feet, they will be extremely difficult to put on. If you do manage to get them on, they will be very tight across the instep, and equally difficult to take off. I wear a size 9 in regular shoes. I ordered the size 8 in these Uggs which was a perfect fit for the overall length, not good with width.

Love my mini, owned many different styles of UGGs I think the minis are my favorite, easy to style. I got the spruce color, is gorgeous.

Inconsistent quality for Uggs!! This pair was my second exact purchase, and the pair before were MUCH BETTER. These were very thin, fake fur, and had blue stitching coming out of a Chestnut colored boot! Made in China. Not worth $150. Thankfully, Zappos will exchange.
