CORETRONIC CORPORATION and OPTOMA CORPORATION, Petitioner,

v.

MAXELL, LTD., Patent Owner.

IPR2025-00474 (Patent 8,593,580 B2) IPR2025-00476 (Patent 9,547,226 B2) IPR2025-00477 (Patent 7,850,313 B2)

Before COKE MORGAN STEWART, Acting Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Acting Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

> DECISION Denying Institution of Inter Partes Review

IPR2025-00474 (Patent 8,593,580 B2) IPR2025-00476 (Patent 9,547,226 B2) IPR2025-00477 (Patent 7,850,313 B2)

Maxell, Ltd. ("Patent Owner") filed a request for discretionary denial (Paper 6, "DD Req.") in the above-captioned cases, and Coretronic Corporation and Optoma Corporation ("Petitioner") filed an opposition (Paper 7, "DD Opp.").<sup>1</sup>

After considering the parties' arguments and the record, and in view of all relevant considerations, discretionary denial of institution is appropriate in these proceedings. This determination is based on the totality of the evidence and arguments the parties have presented.

In particular, the projected final written decision due date for each of these cases is September 10, 2026. DD Req. 6. The district court's scheduled trial date is March 23, 2026, and the time-to-trial statistics suggest trial will begin in May 2026. Id. at 5–6. As such, it is unlikely that a final written decision in these proceedings will issue before the district court trial occurs. Additionally, there is insufficient evidence that the district court is likely to stay its proceeding even if the Board were to institute trial, and there has been meaningful investment in the parallel proceeding by the parties. Id. at 4–5, 9–14. For example, the parties have participated in a Markman hearing and fact discovery will close soon. Id. at 7–8. Furthermore, the challenged patents have been in force for approximately eight, twelve, and fifteen years, creating strong settled expectations, and Petitioner does not provide any persuasive reasoning why an inter partes review is an appropriate use of Board resources. Dabico Airport Sols. Inc. v. AXA Power ApS, IPR2025-00408, Paper 21 at 2–3 (Director June 18, 2025).

Although certain arguments are highlighted above, the determination to exercise discretion to deny institution is based on a holistic assessment of all of the evidence and arguments presented. Accordingly, the Petitions are denied under 35 U.S.C. § 314(a).

In consideration of the foregoing, it is:

ORDERED that Patent Owner's request for discretionary denial is granted; and FURTHER ORDERED that the Petitions are denied, and no trial is instituted.
