More complete information about the devices that Defendants have made, sold, offered for sale, imported into the United States, or used is in the possession of Defendants and is expected to be obtained through discovery. Four Batons reserves the right to augment and supplement its preliminary identification of infringing products based upon additional information obtained through discovery.

C. Claim Charts for Literal Infringement

Four Baton’s preliminary infringement charts are provided as attached Exhibits 1–4, which map the asserted claims to a representative product. In each claim chart, the discussion for dependent claims should be read as incorporating by reference the discussion corresponding to the claims on which they depend. In addition, the discussion for each row in the chart should be read within the context of the discussion for the entire claim to which that row pertains. Where the charts incorporate excerpts of particular versions of technical specification documents, the reference to those versions is exemplary and not to the exclusion of any prior or subsequent versions of the document or any versions of related documents.

Defendants directly infringe the asserted claims under 35 U.S.C. § 271(a) by making, using, selling, offering for sale, and/or importing into the United States the Infringing Instrumentalities. Furthermore, Defendants infringe the asserted claims under 35 U.S.C. § 271(b) by taking active steps to encourage and facilitate direct infringement by others, including customers and/or end users using the Infringing Instrumentalities, with knowledge and the specific intent that its efforts will result in the direct infringement of the asserted claims. In addition, Defendants infringe the asserted claims under 35 U.S.C. § 271(c) by selling or offering to sell the Infringing Instrumentalities with knowledge that they are especially designed or adapted to operate in a manner that infringes the asserted claims and despite the fact that the infringing technology or aspects of the Infringing Instrumentalities are not a staple article of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing use. Four Batons reserves the right to augment and supplement its preliminary claim charts based upon additional information obtained through discovery.

D. Doctrine of Equivalents

Unless otherwise noted in the claim charts, Four Batons alleges that Defendants infringe literally all claims identified above. To the extent any differences are alleged to exist between the above-identified claims and Defendants' infringing conduct, such differences are insubstantial and Defendants' products and processes perform substantially the same function, in substantially the same way, to yield substantially the same result, and therefore defendants infringe under the doctrine of equivalents.

Four Batons reserves the right to augment and supplement its disclosure concerning the doctrine of equivalents based upon additional information obtained through discovery or based upon the Court’s claim construction.

E. Priority Claim to an Earlier Application

The table below shows, for patents that claim priority to an earlier application, the priority date to which each asserted claim is entitled based on such earlier application.

Patent	Claims	Priority Date from Earlier Application
8,798,006	1–8, 16	March 17, 2005, as well as the dates of any subsequent applications
8,239,671	1–4, 6–8, 10–11, 18–19	April 20, 2006
7,502,348	1–6, 13–17	April 1, 2005
8,073,436	1–17, 19	January 31, 2006, as well as the dates of any subsequent applications

Four Batons reserves the right to augment and supplement its disclosure concerning the priority date based upon the Court’s claim construction, additional information obtained through discovery, or other information.

F. Practice of the Claimed Invention

Four Batons is not relying on an assertion that its own apparatus, product, device, process, method, act, or other instrumentality practices the asserted claims of the patents-in-suit.

II. Document Production Accompanying Disclosure

A. Local Patent Rule 3-2(a)

Four Batons is not aware of any documents potentially responsive to P.R. 3-2(a) within its possession, custody, or control at this time. Four Batons reserves the right to augment and supplement its disclosure under P.R. 3-2(a) based upon additional information obtained through discovery or other information.

B. Local Patent Rule 3-2(b)

Four Batons is not aware of any documents potentially responsive to P.R. 3-2(b) within its possession, custody, or control at this time. Four Batons reserves the right to augment and supplement its disclosure under P.R. 3-2(b) based upon additional information obtained through discovery or other information.

C. Local Patent Rule 3-2(c)

Four Batons identifies the following documents as potentially responsive to P.R. 3-2(c): 4B-SAM_00000001 – 4B-SAM_00001667. Four Batons reserves the right to augment and supplement its disclosure under P.R. 3-2(c) based upon additional information obtained through discovery or other information.
