Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)

(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

For access to subpoena materials, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a) Committee Note (2013).

SCHEDULE A

DEFINITIONS

The following definitions shall apply to each deposition topic unless otherwise explicitly stated:

1. “You,” “Your,” and “Mavenir” means Mavenir Systems, Inc., and all persons or entities acting or purporting to act, or that have acted or purported to have acted, on its behalf, including all predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, and agents. This definition expressly includes, but is not limited to, Comverse Network Systems, Inc.; Comverse, Inc.; and Xura, Inc.; regardless of whether such entities were operating independently or under different ownership at the time the records of interest were created. For avoidance of doubt, this includes records created by Comverse and Xura prior to their acquisition or integration into Mavenir Systems, Inc.

2. “Defendants” and “Samsung” mean Defendants Samsung Electronics America, Inc., and Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., collectively.

3. “Regarding” shall mean in whole or in part constituting, containing, embodying, reflecting, describing, analyzing, identifying, mentioning, stating, referring directly or indirectly to, dealing with, or in any way pertaining to.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. If any Topic is deemed to call for disclosure of proprietary or other confidential information, Samsung’s counsel is prepared to receive such information pursuant to the Protective Order (Dkt. 39), which has been entered in this case and attached for your convenience.

2. The Topics set forth below call for information that is known or reasonably available to Mavenir. If You know of the existence, past or present, of any information, requested below, but are unable to testify to such information because it is not known by You or reasonably available to Mavenir, You shall identify such information and the person to which the information is known or reasonably available.

3. In the event that You object to any Topic on the ground that it is overbroad and/or unduly burdensome for any reason, testify to that Topic as narrowed to the least extent necessary, in Your judgment, to render it not overbroad/unduly burdensome, state specifically the extent to which You have narrowed that Topic for purposes of Your testimony, and describe in detail Your justification for so narrowing the Topic.

4. In the event that You object to any Topic on the ground that it is vague and/or ambiguous, identify the particular words, terms or phrases that are asserted to make such Topic vague and/or ambiguous and specify the meaning actually attributed by You to such words for purposes of Your testimony thereto.

5. These Topics should be read in the most inclusive manner possible. Accordingly: (1) the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular whenever necessary to bring within the scope of these Topics information that might otherwise be outside their scope; (2) “and” as well as “or” shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of these Topics information and documents that might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope; (3) “each” shall be construed to include the word “every” and “every” shall be construed to include the word “each”; (4) “any” shall be construed to include the word “all” and “all” shall be construed to include the word “any”; (5) “include” or “including” means including but not limited to, and should not be read to limit the scope of any particular Topic, but merely as illustrative of some information that would be responsive; (6) all tenses include the past, present, and future tenses; and (7) any pronoun shall be construed to refer to the masculine, feminine, or neuter gender as in each case is most appropriate.

6. If the meaning of any term in these Topics is unclear, You should assume a reasonable meaning, state what the assumed meaning is, and testify on the basis of that assumed meaning.

TOPICS

1. The architecture, design, and specifications of the Tel@GO System.
2. The date of first sale, use, offer for sale, and/or demonstration of the Tel@GO System.
3. All versions of the Tel@GO System provided to customers.
4. Source code for all versions of the Tel@GO System.
5. The development of the Tel@GO System.
6. All licensing agreements, end-user license agreements (EULAs), and/or reseller agreements related to the Tel@GO System.
7. Public deployments, demonstrations, and/or public distribution of the Tel@GO system.
8. The person or persons most knowledgeable about the Tel@GO System.
