DECISION
Denying Patent Owner's Request for Discretionary Denial

Imperative Care v. Inari Medical
IPR2025-01025
Imperative Care Ex. 1054

Inari Medical, Inc. (“Patent Owner”) filed a request for discretionary denial (Paper 6, “DD Req.”) in the above-captioned case, and Imperative Care, Inc. (“Petitioner”) filed an opposition (Paper 8, “DD Opp.”).

After considering the parties’ arguments and the record, and in view of all relevant considerations, discretionary denial of institution is not appropriate in this proceeding. This determination is based on the totality of the evidence and arguments the parties have presented.

In particular, there is no trial date scheduled in the district court. DD Opp. 6. Petitioner also provides evidence that the district court is likely to grant a stay if this proceeding is instituted. Id. at 7–9. In addition, the challenged patent issued recently, in 2023. Early challenges to patents favor robust, predictable patent rights and weigh against discretionary denial.

Although certain arguments are highlighted above, the determination not to exercise discretion to deny institution is based on a holistic assessment of all of the evidence and arguments presented. Accordingly, the Petition is referred to the Board to handle the case in the normal course, including by issuing a decision on institution addressing the merits and other non-discretionary considerations, as appropriate.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is:

ORDERED that Patent Owner’s request for discretionary denial is denied;

FURTHER ORDERED that the Petition is referred to the Board; and

FURTHER ORDERED that neither party shall file a request for rehearing or Director Review of this decision until the Board issues a decision on institution.
