Many online casinos offer huge signup bonuses, but there's a catch. Buried in the fine print is that play on the most popular games doesn't count towards earning the bonus. It's common for blackjack, roulette, baccarat, craps, and Jacks or Better to be excluded. Sometimes everything except slots.

And that's if you can even find the terms and conditions. Many casinos put their 100% bonus in big flaming letters but make you hunt all over the site to find the rules.

But Bodog allows play on all games to count towards the wagering requirement. It's that simple. Just no opposite betting. All casinos ought to be as easy as Bodog about this. The bonus offer itself is simple too: on your first deposit, they'll give you an extra 10%. If you deposit $100, you'll wind up with $110 in chips or tokens.

Finally, in the unlikely event that Bodog feels you've been abusing their bonuses they won't seize your winnings, like some other casinos. In the worst case scenario they will politely tell you that they will not be offering you any future bonuses but you are welcome to keep playing and keep everything you have made already. SIC BO

Sic Bo (Big Small) is an ancient Chinese game played with three dice. The object of the game is for each player to pick individual numbers or combinations of numbers they think will appear after the three dice are shaken.

The possibilities are:

"One of a Kind"	on one die	wins	1 to 1
"One of a Kind"	on two dice	wins	2 to 1
"One of a Kind"	on three dice	wins	3 to 1
"Two of a Kind"	on a specific number	wins	10 to 1
"Three of a Kind"	on a specific number	wins	180 to 1
"Three of a Kind"	on any number	wins	30 to 1
"Any Two Dice Combination"	on specific numbers	wins	5 to 1
"Total Value of 4"		wins	60 to 1
"Total Value of 5"		wins	30 to 1
"Total Value of 6"		wins	17 to 1
"Total Value of 7"		wins	12 to 1
"Total Value of 8"		wins	8 to 1
"Total Value of 9 thru 12"		wins	6 to 1
"Total Value of 13"		wins	8 to 1
"Total Value of 14"		wins	12 to 1
"Total Value of 15"		wins	17 to 1
"Total Value of 16"		wins	30 to 1
"Total Value of 17"		wins	60 to 1
"BIG"		wins	1 to 1
"SMALL"		wins	1 to 1

To play Sic Bo, you place your chips on the table layout directly on the numbers and/or combination of numbers you desire. Each player is responsible for the positioning of their chips. After the dealer calls "No More Bets" they will shake the dice that are sealed in a shaker, uncover the dice and enter the results into the electronic layout. All winning combinations will be illuminated. Easy as 1, 2, 3.
