Dear Rebecca and Manal,

This is just to let you know that all of the user guides, in 9 languages, have been uploaded to the web site. They have not been "published", i.e. they are still hidden until the release goes ahead.

Once it is release time, Stuart will help me publish them.

If there are any major problems that you can't help me with while I am gone, I will resolve when I return on the 22nd.

Thanks

Dave
