Dear Honorable Board,

In IPR2025-01523 and IPR2025-01569, the Eastern District of Texas has issued a Docket Control Order scheduling a trial date. Patent Owner MeshDynamics is respectfully seeking authorization to file a one-page supplemental brief and the Docket Control Order as an accompanying exhibit. The supplemental brief will address the district court trial date set in the Docket Control Order.

Petitioner's position is as follows: Cisco does not oppose Dynamic Mesh's request to file the Docket Control Order as an exhibit in these cases. Cisco also does not oppose the request for a one-page supplemental brief in each case directed solely to the District Court trial date, on condition that Cisco gets, in each case, a one-page reply to DM's supplemental brief, to be due at least 3 days after Dynamic Mesh's brief.

Sincerely,

Erin Hadi
