Re: Maxell's Smartphones, Tablets, Smartwatches, Streaming Devices, and Television Related Patents

Dear Mr. Jeon:

I write to follow-up on the correspondence you have been exchanging with my client Maxell since the summer of 2021. Despite Maxell's efforts to engage in discussion for several years with respect to Maxell's patent portfolio related to smartphones, tablets, and smart watches, the parties were unable to make any progress in reaching a resolution. Thus, on September 7, 2023, Maxell filed a Complaint of patent infringement against Samsung in the Eastern District of Texas. I have enclosed the Complaint for your reference.

We also request that you waive service of the complaint on behalf of Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. in exchange for an extension of time for all defendants to file a response in accordance with F.R.C.P. 4(d). If you do not accept in a timely manner, Maxell will move the Court for leave to effect alternative service on Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. A copy of the waiver form is attached for your convenience. If you refuse to waive service, you may be subject to penalties, including "the expenses later incurred in making service; and [] the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, of any motion required to collect those service expenses." See F.R.C.P. 4(d)(2).

While the Complaint has been filed, I write to inform you that Maxell (Messrs. Yamamoto and Hirabayashi) is still ready to engage in serious business discussions and resolve this matter without protracted litigation. Such resolution will be beneficial to Samsung because Maxell's patent portfolio continues to grow and goes from strength to strength based on the fact that Lenovo and Motorola Mobility have recently entered into a license agreement to Maxell's portfolio and the USPTO continues to grant additional patents to Maxell that covers various features of Samsung's smartphones, tablets, watches, televisions, and laptops. In particular, I would like to call to your attention the following U.S. patents that have issued since the list Maxell provided in a letter dated December 29, 2021. These patents are also being infringed by Samsung's smartphones, tablets, smartwatches, and laptops and could be part of future complaints if Samsung continues to choose the course of further delays and protracted litigation.

As with Maxell’s prior identifications, the foregoing listing of patents, claims, and accused products is exemplary. Nevertheless, the breadth of Maxell’s patent portfolio indicates the broad applicability of Maxell’s patents to multiple product lines of Samsung.

Given that Samsung has had several years to evaluate Maxell’s patent lists and various materials, we stand ready to enter into constructive business discussions to determine whether a mutually acceptable patent license agreement can be reached. Despite filing the Complaint, Maxell is prepared to enter into such discussions at your earliest convenience. I will be handling this discussion on behalf of Maxell and can be reached by email at jbeaber@mayerbrown.com. I look forward to your reply and the opportunity to discuss these matters with you or your representative.
