Section 1 — Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Registration Rights Agreement

Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Company entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with Newtek (the “Registration Rights Agreement”), pursuant to which, among other things, and subject to certain limitations set forth therein, the Company agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to prepare and file a registration statement registering the resale of the Conversion Shares (as defined herein) as soon as practicable following the Acquisition Closing.

In addition, pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, Newtek has the right to require the Company, subject to certain limitations set forth therein, to effect the registration of up to five underwritten offerings of Conversion Shares. The Registration Rights Agreement also provides Newtek with certain customary piggyback registration rights. These registration rights are subject to certain conditions and limitations, including the right of the underwriters to limit the number of shares to be included in a registration or offering and the Company’s right to delay or withdraw a registration statement under certain circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Registration Rights Agreement is a summary only, does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the full text of the Registration Rights Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (this “Current Report”) and is incorporated by reference herein.

Section 2 — Financial Information

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

The Acquisition

As discussed in the Introductory Note, which is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.01, on the Closing Date, the Company completed its previously announced Acquisition of NTS pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement.

The aggregate consideration delivered by the Company to Newtek at the Acquisition Closing consisted of (i) $4,000,000 in cash (as adjusted pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, the “Acquisition Closing Cash Consideration”) and (ii) 4,000,000 shares of the Company’s Series A Non-Voting Common Equivalent Stock (the “Preferred Stock” and such shares issued at the Acquisition Closing, the “Acquisition Closing Stock Consideration”) and together with the Acquisition Closing Cash Consideration, the “Acquisition Closing Consideration”). The Preferred Stock will automatically convert into one share of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Common Stock”) (subject to certain customary anti-dilution adjustments), upon the occurrence of certain qualifying transfers by Newtek to third parties (the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion, “Conversion Shares”).

In addition to the Acquisition Closing Consideration, the Acquisition Agreement provides that Newtek is entitled to receive an amount up to $5,000,000 (the “Acquisition Earn-Out Amount”) based on the Company’s achievement of certain cumulative average adjusted EBITDA thresholds for the 2025 and 2026 fiscal years. The Acquisition Earn-Out Amount may be paid, at the Company’s sole discretion, in cash (the “Acquisition Earn-Out Cash Consideration”), in shares of Preferred Stock (the “Acquisition Earn-Out Stock Consideration”) or in a combination thereof. Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, to the extent that all or a portion of the Acquisition Earn-Out Amount is paid in shares of Preferred Stock, the number of shares of Preferred Stock to be issued to Newtek will be calculated based on the average of the daily volume weighted average prices during each trading day during a 60 calendar-day period ending on December 31, 2026; provided, that in no event shall such price be less than $1.00.

Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, if the issuance of the Acquisition Earn-Out Stock Consideration would cause Newtek’s “total equity” (as calculated under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the “BHCA”), and as implemented and interpreted by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System) in the Company to exceed one-third of the Company’s total equity (the “Total Equity Cap”), then the number of shares of Preferred Stock issuable as Acquisition Earn-Out Stock Consideration will be adjusted so that the Company will issue to Newtek the maximum number of shares of Preferred Stock that would not cause Newtek’s total equity to exceed the Total Equity Cap, with a corresponding increase to the Acquisition Earn-Out Cash Consideration.

The foregoing description of the Acquisition Agreement is a summary only, does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the full text of the Acquisition Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report and is incorporated by reference herein.

The Divestiture

As discussed in the Introductory Note, on the Closing Date and prior to the Acquisition Closing, the Company completed its previously announced sale of the Transferred Assets to Meteor Mobile. The consideration delivered by Meteor Mobile to the Company at the closing of the Divestiture consisted of (i) $1,350,000 in cash and (ii) the assumption of all of the liabilities of the Sellers arising out of, or relating to, the Business or the Transferred Assets, other than certain excluded liabilities (the “Divestiture Closing Consideration”).

In addition to the Divestiture Closing Consideration, the Sellers are entitled to receive, with respect to each Earn-Out Period, as defined and described below, certain payments in cash based on the cash revenue, net of any refunds, received by Meteor Mobile that is attributable to the Business (such cash revenue, the “Revenue”), as follows:

- from the six-month period beginning on July 1, 2025 and ending on December 31, 2025 (“Earn-Out Period I”), an amount equal to (i) for any Revenue greater than or equal to $3,500,000 and less than $4,250,000, the amount of such Revenue multiplied by 0.30 plus (ii) for any Revenue greater than or equal to $4,250,000, the amount of such Revenue in excess of $4,250,000 multiplied by 0.40; and

- from each of the twelve-month period beginning on January 1, 2026 and ending on December 31, 2026 (“Earn-Out Period 2”), the twelve-month period beginning on January 1, 2027 and ending on December 31, 2027 (“Earn-Out Period 3”), and the twelve-month period beginning on January 1, 2028 and ending on December 31, 2028 (“Earn-Out Period 4” and collectively with Earn-Out Period 1, Earn-Out Period 2 and Earn-Out Period 3, the “Earn-Out Periods”), an amount equal to (i) for any Revenue greater than or equal to $7,000,000 and less than $8,500,000, the amount of such Revenue multiplied by 0.30 plus (ii) for any Revenue greater than or equal to $8,500,000, the amount of such Revenue in excess of $8,500,000 multiplied by 0.40 (the aggregate amount, if any, earned during the Earn-Out Periods, the “Divestiture Earn-Out Amount”).

In the event of a change of control (as defined in the Divestiture Agreement) of Meteor Mobile during any of the Earn-Out Periods, the Company is entitled to receive an acceleration payment in cash, net of any Divestiture Earn-Out Amounts previously paid to the Company (the “Acceleration Payment”). If any of the Transferred Assets are sold independently from the other assets of Meteor Mobile, the Company will be entitled to (i) 50% of the aggregate consideration paid to Meteor Mobile for the Transferred Assets minus (ii) the aggregate amount of any Divestiture Earn-Out Amounts received by the Sellers by the date of the change of control, minus (iii) the aggregate amount of any Acceleration Payments previously paid through such date. If any of the Transferred Assets are sold contemporaneously with other assets of Meteor Mobile, the Company is entitled to (x) the aggregate consideration paid to Meteor Mobile for the Transferred Assets multiplied by the ratio of the trailing 12-month EBITDA of the Transferred Assets sold and the EBITDA of all assets sold minus (y) the aggregate amount of any Divestiture Earn-Out Amounts received by the Sellers by the date of the change of control, minus (z) the aggregate amount of any Acceleration Payments previously paid through such date. The minimum Acceleration Payment for the sale of “Paltalk,” “Camfrog” and “Vumber” is $1,650,000, $450,000 and $300,000, respectively, and the Acceleration Payments payable to the Company are capped at $5,000,000 in the aggregate.

In connection with the closing of the Divestiture, on the Closing Date, Paltalk Holdings and Meteor Mobile entered into a perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, fully paid-up, worldwide, non-exclusive license to use, reproduce, modify, display, distribute, and otherwise exploit the Vumber patent (the “Patent License Agreement”), subject to certain rights and restrictions. The Patent License Agreement will terminate upon the expiration of the Vumber patent unless earlier terminated pursuant to its terms.

The foregoing description of the Divestiture Agreement is a summary only, does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the full text of the Divestiture Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.2 to this Current Report and is incorporated by reference herein.

Series A Non-Voting Common Equivalent Stock

On December 30, 2024, the Company filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware the Certificate of Designations designating the Preferred Stock (the “Certificate of Designations”), and establishing the preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends and other distributions, qualifications, or terms or conditions of redemption of the shares of Preferred Stock. The total number of authorized shares of Preferred Stock is 9,000,000 shares.

Maturity

The shares Preferred Stock are perpetual securities, unless converted in accordance with the Certificate of Designations.

Voting Rights

Holders of Preferred Stock generally do not have voting rights, except with respect to certain protective matters such as amendments to the Charter or the Certificate of Designations that significantly and adversely affect the preferences, rights, privileges or powers of the Preferred Stock.

Except with respect to the liquidation preference described below, the Preferred Stock ranks equally with the Company’s Common Stock with respect to dividends or distributions declared by the Board, and rights upon any liquidation, dissolution, winding up or similar proceeding of the Company, as provided in the Charter.

Conversion and Transfer

Each share of Preferred Stock will automatically convert into one share of Common Stock upon the consummation of a transfer by a holder that is both (i) to a person who is not an affiliate of the holder for purposes of the BHCA and (ii) (A) to the Company; (B) in a widespread public distribution; (C) in which no transferee (or group of associated transferees) would receive 2% or more of the outstanding securities of any class of voting securities of the Company; or (D) to a purchaser that would control more than 50% of every class of voting securities of the Company without any transfer from the holder. The Board cannot declare or pay any cash dividend or make cash distributions in respect of the Company’s Common Stock unless the Board declares and pays to the holders Preferred Stock at the same time and on the same terms as the holders of the Company’s Common Stock the dividend to which the shares of Preferred Stock are entitled.

Liquidation

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company, holders of the Preferred Stock are entitled to receive, in preference to the holders of the Company’s Common Stock, an amount per share equal to $0.0001, and would then participate equally with the Company’s Common Stock in the remainder of the distributions.
