Re: Sea Swivel, Inc. v. Shuttleslide, LLC

Dear Mr. Taylor,

We previously sent you a letter on or about May 7, 2024, regarding the swiveling trolling motor mount that you have been producing, marketing, and selling. To date, we have not received any response to our letter. Enclosed you will find U.S. Patent No.: US 12,258,111 B1, awarded on March 25, 2025, to Inventor Mark S. Berta, Jr. and Assignee Sea Swivel Inc., collectively, our clients. We strongly encourage that you contact us as soon as possible to discuss the implications of these recent developments with respect to your continued production, marketing, and sale of swiveling trolling motor mounts.

Should you fail to respond, we shall consider your refusal to address this matter as an admission and demonstration of your intention to continue to infringe upon our clients' intellectual property rights, that you are intentionally and maliciously doing so and shall take all necessary steps to protect and enforce our clients' rights, which includes the filing of a lawsuit against you.

We are optimistic that this letter will help you to understand how serious this matter is to us, and if we do not hear from you within fifteen (15) days, we will proceed to file a lawsuit against you. We look forward to hearing from you, and our client reserves all rights with respect to this matter.

PLEASE GOVERN YOURSELF ACCORDINGLY

Very Truly Yours,

/s/ Anthony Bruno
