PETITIONER'S MOTION TO SEAL, REQUEST FOR IN CAMERA
REVIEW, AND FOR ENTRY OF STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Petitioner Terumo BCT, Inc. (“Terumo”) respectfully submits this Motion to seal its Search Disclosure Declaration (“Terumo’s SDD”), request in camera review of its SDD, and seek entry of a Proposed Modified Protective Order.<sup>1</sup>

I. RELIEF REQUESTED

Along with the filing of this Motion, Terumo is submitting its SDD filed under “Filing Party and Board,” along with a redacted version of its SDD, following the confidentiality procedures outlined in Director Squires’ November 17, 2025 Memorandum regarding Voluntary Search Disclosure Declarations as a Favorable Factor in Institution Decisions (“Memorandum”). Memorandum at 2. Under 37 C.F.R. §§ 42.54 and 42.14, Terumo respectfully (1) moves to seal its SDD, filed as Exhibit 1012<sup>2</sup>; (2) requests in camera review of Terumo’s SDD; and (3) moves for entry of the proposed modified version of the Board’s Default Protective Order (“Modified Protective Order”) attached hereto as Exhibit A, with a redlined version provided as Exhibit B.

Good cause exists to seal, and the Memorandum authorizes sealing, the redacted portions of Terumo's SDD. Good cause further exists for granting Terumo's request for in camera review of Terumo's SDD, as the redacted portions of Terumo's SDD includes Terumo's information that is protected by the attorney work product privilege. Patent Owner, Haemonetics Corporation ("Patent Owner" or "Haemonetics"), does not oppose Terumo's Motion to Seal and Request for In Camera Review and has consented to the Proposed Modified Protective Order.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

The Board may, for good cause, issue an order to protect a party or person from disclosing confidential information, including, but not limited to, "[s]pecifying terms, including time and place, for the disclosure or discovery." 37 C.F.R. § 42.54(a)(2). In particular, the Board will protect confidential information after balancing "the public's interest in maintaining a complete and understandable file history and the parties' interest in protecting truly sensitive information." Patent Trial and Appeal Board Consolidated Trial Practice Guide at 19 (Nov. 2019) (hereinafter "PTAB Practice Guide").

A party may file a motion to seal where the motion to seal contains a proposed protective order and a certification that the moving party has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties. 37 C.F.R. §42.54(a).

III. GOOD CAUSE EXISTS FOR SEALING TERUMO'S SDD AND FOR REQUESTING IN CAMERA REVIEW OF TERUMO'S SDD

Terumo's narrowly tailored redactions balance "the public's interest in maintaining a complete and understandable file history and the parties' interest in protecting truly sensitive information." PTAB Practice Guide at 19. Most of Terumo's SDD is available for public consumption. The redacted portions of Terumo's SDD reflect highly confidential information protected by the attorney work product doctrine.

The attorney "work-product doctrine shelters the mental processes of the attorney, providing a privileged area within which he can analyze and prepare his client's case." United States v. Nobles, 422 U.S. 225, 238–39 (1975). When preparing a petition challenging the validity of a patent, Terumo's attorneys may evaluate their clients' invalidity merits by consulting "databases and repositories in which the asserted prior art was located" and "analytics or publicly accessible resources." Memorandum at 2. Attorneys "assemble information, sift what [they] consider[] to be the relevant from the irrelevant facts, prepare [their] legal theories and plan [their] strategy" through their general prior art search approaches; search terms, filters, queries, or classification pathways employed during prior art searching. Nobles, 422 U.S. at 237. Public "[d]isclosure of an attorney's efforts" including the amount of time spent on the search; and the amount of time spent reviewing search results will "disrupt the orderly development and presentation of his case" before the Board. Id. at 238–39. Thus, when an exhibit contains the attorney work product described above, good cause exists to seal the exhibit and limit the tribunal to review such material in camera. See In re EchoStar Commc 'ns Corp., 448 F.3d 1294, 1304 (Fed. Cir. 2006).

Good cause exists to seal Terumo's SDD because it contains the required information outlined in the Memorandum, information that is "truly confidential" and protected by the attorney work product privilege. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1)(G). Terumo's SDD discloses "in detail the databases and repositories in which the asserted prior art was located; the general search approach, search terms, filters, queries, or classification pathways employed; other analytics or publicly accessible resources consulted; the amount of time spent on the search; and the amount of time spent reviewing search results." Memorandum at 1. To the extent Terumo's SDD discloses the work done by someone other than Terumo's counsel of record, good cause exists to seal that information and restrict it to in camera review, too, as the attorney work product "doctrine protect[s] material prepared by agents for the attorney as well as those prepared by the attorney himself." Nobles, 422 U.S. at 239. But for restricting Terumo's SDD to the Board's in camera review, "much of what is now put down in writing" in Terumo's SDD "would remain unwritten." Id. at 237.

Further, Terumo is not relying on its SDD in support of any of its invalidity arguments, so the public's interest in accessing it is minimal. Terumo, has, however, a strong interest in protecting its attorney work product privileged and confidential information, and, thus, Terumo's interest in keeping the redacted information under seal outweighs the public's interest in viewing that information. Cf. Garmin Int'l, Inc. et al. v. Cuozzo Speed Techs. LLC, IPR2012-00001, Paper 36 at 7-9 (P.T.A.B. Apr. 5, 2013). Therefore, there is good cause to seal the narrowly tailored redactions within Terumo's SDD and for granting its request for in camera review.

IV. PROPOSED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 42.54, Terumo requests that the proposed modified protective order attached below as Exhibit A be entered.<sup>3</sup>

Good cause exists to modify the Board's default protective order to include at least two levels of confidentiality designations and to comply with the requirements in the Memorandum. See PTAB Practice Guide at 91. Terumo's SDD requires filing under Filing Party and Board only to protect information protected under the attorney work product doctrine, and the proposed Modified Protective Order properly indicates that the Office may use the information in Terumo's SDD for internal training, improving examination processes, and analytics. See Memorandum at 2. Further, to the extent Patent Owner relies on confidential information to argue that secondary considerations support finding of non-obviousness, that information would require a separate confidentiality designation.

<sup>3</sup> “[A] marked-up comparison of the proposed and default protective orders showing the differences between the two” is attached as Exhibit B. See PTAB Practice Guide at 91.

The parties reserve the right to seek appropriate further modifications to the Proposed Modified Protective Order in the future to the extent necessary.

V. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, Terumo respectfully requests the Board grant (1) its Motion to Seal Terumo's SDD, with a redacted version available to the public; (2) Request for In Camera Review of Terumo's SDD and (3) enter the Proposed Modified Protective Order.
