Elizabeth,

Cisco does not oppose MeshDynamics' requested dismissal with prejudice of the '537 patent from the EDTX action. We are still conferring with our client regarding the NDCA and PTO proceedings.

Regards,
Michael

Counsel:

MeshDynamics intends to seek dismissal of the '537 patent with prejudice from the Texas litigation. Please let us know if Cisco will agree to stipulate to drop this patent from the pending litigations and patent office proceedings. Thank you.

Best,
